

Day's News in Short Paragraphs

PHILADELPHIA.—Charging trickery in the methods of obtaining a Federal appropriation, Presbyterian ministers ask Christians to withhold patronage from the Yukon Exposition if it is not closed on Sundays.

WASHINGTON.—Officials of the Navy Department are thoroughly overhauling the physical condition of the cadets at the Naval Academy. Their showing, in comparison with the West Point cadets, suffers severely.

DARBY, PA.—Postmaster B. F. Maginn, always patriotic, had prepared a name for his new baby William Howard Taft Maginn, but circumstances led him to change it to Mary.

HONOLULU.—That Jack London has lost his health through tropical diseases and may never regain it is the information given out by E. S. Goodhue, of this city, who has received a lengthy letter from the novelist, who is in a hospital at Sydney, Australia.

PARIS.—William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, authorized a denial of the report that he is conducting negotiations with the Duetche Stahlwerke Verein, the German steel federation, with a view to arranging an agreement on behalf of the United States Steel Corporation regarding steel imports and exports in the two countries.

PHILADELPHIA.—The prothonotaryship of the Supreme Court will be offered to Chief Justice Mitchell, whose twenty-one-year term expires on the first Monday in January. Friends of the Chief Justice are of the opinion that he will accept the place as successor to Colonel McClure, although they decline to speak with authority. The office pays $12,000 a year.

NEW YORK.—Police reserves were called out in Brooklyn to-day to safeguard life and limb at a city marshal's sale of peach-basket, coal-scuttle, mushroom and assorted hats, in Gates Avenue.

NEW YORK.—Regis H. Post, Governor of Porto Rico, arrived here from San Juan. Aside from stating that tranquillity prevailed in Porto Rico when he left, and that the whole trouble there had been "only a difference of political opinion," Governor Post had nothing to say about conditions on the island.

NEW YORK.—Charles M. Daniels, amateur champion swimmer of the world, was married to Mrs. Florence Goodyear Wagner, who recently obtained a divorce from George Olds Wagner in Paris, and who has several millions of dollars in her own name.

ASBURY PARK, N. J.—In his address to the American National Association of Masters of Dancing, in convention here, President E. A. Prinz, of St. Joseph, Mo., urged a difference in dress to distinguish servants from guests on ballroom floors of summer hotels.

LONDON.—The May statement of the Board of Trade shows an increase of $2,933,500 in imports and a decrease of $7,705,500 in exports. The principal increase in imports was in cotton and a decrease was in manufactured goods.

WASHINGTON.—Speaker Cannon declines to name the man to whom he referred in his article in the June Century as having first offered to "turn the whole newspaper press of the country over to support any ambition" he might have if he would favor a certain measure, and then threatened to "turn this terrible engine of publicity against the Speaker if he refused."

NEW YORK.—The end of the Roosevelt administration, quick settlement of the tariff question, and assurances of excellent crops, are given as the threefold basis for prophesying the approach of a period of great national prosperity, in the annual report of the Consolidated Stock Exchange.

WASHINGTON, PA.—A mob, composed of about twenty men from the vicinity of California, this county, went to a house in Dalsytown, a suburb of California, broke in, and after torturing and feathering Mollie Ridge and H. O. Wright, dragged them to Pike Run Creek, near by, and dumped both into the water. The pair had been warned to leave the community, but remained.

PHILADELPHIA.—State Senator Clarence Wolf resigned as one of the city's representatives on the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, at the meeting of the board, and was immediately elected director, and then chosen first vice-president in place of George D. Widener, who resigned.

BOSTON.—Because of the statement of Mrs. Della M. Gilbert that Mary Baker G. Eddy is either dead or a helpless, mindless puppet, the leaders of the cult here allowed a band of reporters to catch a fleeting glimpse of the aged lady through the window of her carriage as she drove away from her residence at Chestnut Hill. The whole affair was carefully arranged as to time, and, although the newspaper men were in the house, none of them saw how Mrs. Eddy got into her carriage or had more than a momentary glance at her as she leaned forward, smiled faintly and waved her hand.

LONDON.—E. H. Harriman, on board the Kaiser Wilhelm II., which called at Plymouth, declined to discuss the question of attempting to float in Europe a $150,000,000 bond issue for his railroad lines. He merely said he could do this easily in America in five minutes if it was necessary. He made a reassuring statement concerning his health.

NEW YORK.—The discovery that many of the dress clubs used by policemen are made of papier mache and varnished, and that the uniforms of the members of the force are composed of inferior cloth prompted Commissioner Bingham to order a new inspection of uniforms and equipments.

NEW YORK.—At the conclusion of Mayor McClellan's investigation into Justice Gaynor's charge that the Police Commissioner is guilty of oppression and despotism in keeping George B. Duffy's picture in the "rouge" gallery, it was announced that young Duffy is about to bring suit against Bingham for $100,000 damages. Papers in the suit are being prepared by counsel for young Duffy at the suggestion of Justice Gaynor.

PHILADELPHIA.—Bordering on the miraculous was the escape of the year-old son of Allan Mulligan. Struck by a shifting engine at Sedgely Avenue and York Street, the baby was sent flying over a five-foot board fence, landing unhurt in a tub of water. There was not a mark or bruise on the infant's body.

BOSTON.—The Congo Reform Association made public a report received from the Rev. W. W. White, a British missionary stationed at Lohanga, in the Upper Congo. The missionary said that conditions in the Congo were worse now than at any time in the last twelve years.

ANNAPOLIS.—The first attempt in Maryland to apply the "grandfather clause" to the limitation of the exercise of the suffrage by negroes was made when registration under the municipal election law for Annapolis began. The law is an avowed attempt to prevent, as far as possible, all negroes from voting.

Supreme Court Proceedings. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WYTHEVILLE, VA., June 8.—Proceedings in the Supreme Court of Appeals to-day were as follows: Virginia and Kentucky Railway Company vs. Heninger. Argued by W. H. Bond for appellant and E. M. Fulton for appellee and submitted. Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Solenberger's administrator. Argued by E. V. Fulton for plaintiff in error and J. P. Saved by Housewife's Vine.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 8.—The three-year-old son of R. W. Murray, while playing horse in the nursery this morning, glanced out of the window, which was located in the second story, and fell fifteen feet without serious injury. The little fellow was saved from serious if not fatal consequences by a kindly and sweet-smelling "housewife's vine," which had clambered to his assistance and prevented a precipitate plunge to the earth.

Swift Re-elected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 8.—Last night, the City Board of Education re-elected Professor W. H. Swift as superintendent of Greensboro schools for the ensuing year. Professor Swift has been identified with city school work here for many years, and has acceptably filled the position of superintendent for the past five years.

ceding Professor E. D. Broad who resigned to begin practicing.

The teachers of the schools, including the principal, will be selected at the next meeting of the board.
